

Chairperson's Message

On behalf of the Sligo County Agricultural Show, Riverstown, I am delighted once again to present the schedule of Classes for our forthcoming 2013 Show.

New Classes have been added in our Cattle, Horses & Ponies, Poultry, Dogs and Home Industry Sections and you will be pleased to hear that yet again we will have the Macra na Feirme FBD, All Ireland Semi-Final Farm Skills Competition taking place on the day.

Our Community Arts Tent plays host to two awareness raising initiatives in relation to less litter on rural roads and the issue of rubbish, albeit less visible, in Irish rivers. A free film will be shown on the day as well as art and project displays.

Woodturner Matt Jones will demonstrate his craft at the Show, sell his work & host a free raffle of a bowl in Spalted Beech for visitors to his stand, Ballymote Farmers Market will also have a range of products on offer to visitors and information will be on hand from local Community Alert Groups, as well as free booklets for our visitors on protecting s, from Teagasc, and An Taisce's latest Nature's Way publication entitled Invasive Species.

There will be free storytelling, free face painting and free Airsoft Shooting & Archery, courtesy of Lough Bough Shooting Centre, as we strive to build on our free entertainment for children. There will be lots of opportunities for families to get up close to a wide range of farm animals, thrilling both children and adults alike.

Thanks to Sligo Co. Council for their funding under the Community & Voluntary Sector Grant Scheme, Riverstown Park Committee for the kind use of the Community Park, Department of Agriculture, Food & the Marine for their help towards insurance costs, as well as the HSA for their free books on farm safety for children. Another new addition to this year's Show is thanks to the RSA, as visitors can avail of the Road Safety Shuttle Bus and RSA Rollover (this vehicle turns 360 degrees whilst you sit inside and truly feel the power of the seatbelt!).

I would like to thank An Garda Síochána for their assistance in traffic management and the Civil Defence for their presence on the field throughout the day of our Show.

An extra special word of thanks to our faithful sponsors for their continuous generosity, to our new sponsors who have come on board this year for the first time and to our altruistic silent sponsors, to all of them we say "go raibh mile maith agaibh", and we encourage you all to please give them your support in their various fields, without them there would be no Show!

Thanks to all our hard working committee, stewards and helpers for their dedication and loyalty. It is a combination of this volunteerism and the aforementioned sponsorship that ensures the continued success of our annual event in Riverstown, which is always held on the third Saturday in July each year.

Finally to everyone, including our ever increasing group of supporters, exhibitors, competitors and judges, I wish you all an exceptionally enjoyable day at the 2013 Sligo County Agricultural Show with plenty of sunshine, craic and memories to cherish.

Michael Harte

Sligo County Agricultural Show

RULES AND CONDITIONS

All entries will be subject to the following conditions.

1. Entries must be made on the prescribed Forms, accompanied by the proper entrance fees, otherwise the Entry will not be accepted and the exhibits will not be allowed to compete.
2. All exhibits must be bona fide property of the exhibitor at the time of entry and there must be no substitution for the animal or article in any Class.
3. All the prize winners (Horses) must be examined by a V.S. except in the Jumping, driving and Foal Classes. The judgement of the V.S. shall be final and shall be regarded as confidential for the Show Committee unless otherwise deemed necessary and shall be limited to a certificate of "sound or unsound". In Classes where height is a qualification prize-winners shall be measured by a V.S. to be measured as shod when exhibited.
4. No objection shall be received against a Judge's of V.S. awards and any objection shall be on the grounds of misdescription or any other matters must be in writing and lodged with the Secretary at the office before 2p.m accompanied by a deposit of €25.00 which may be forfeited should an objection be deemed frivolous. Objection on the grounds of wrong valuation of bona fide ownership will be received within 8 days of the show and no later.
5. No animal will be allowed to compete if bearing any mark of ownership and all exhibits, whether for competition or otherwise are shown at exhibitor's risk. In no case will the Show committee accept responsibility. An ordinary initial brand will not disqualify any animal in Cattle or Sheep Classes.
6. All young horses must be shown in cavesson. Bulls must be secured by a ring in nose with chain or rope attached. All other cattle must be led in suitable halters. This rule is strictly enforced.
7. No Steward shall attend on the Judge's or remain in the Ring during the judging of a Class in which he is an exhibitor, and no person shall enter the Ring while judging proceeds, except the Judge's Stewards and those in charge of animals. The exhibits of owners violating this rule shall be disqualified from receiving a prize.
8. No exhibitor whatever shall in any way communicate with a judge, or remain in the Ring, or Hall during judging of a Class in which he is an exhibitor, except in charge of an animal and no person shall enter the Ring while judging proceeds except the Judge's, Stewart and those in charge of animals. The owners of exhibits violating this rule shall be disqualified from receiving a prize. The term 'Ring' to apply to place in which class is being judged.
9. No exhibits shall leave the Show yard until 4.00 pm or until after written permission is obtained from the secretary. All prize-winners must remain in Show yard and take part in Parade at 2.30 O'clock or when called. Prize-winners will forfeit their prizes unless they take part in parade when called on.
10. The committee reserve the right to alter the programme in any way it deems necessary and exhibitors must be prepared to abide by any regulations hereafter laid down.
11. All entries are received subject to the rules, and any exhibitor who violated or ignores them shall forfeit any prize he may win and some shall revert to the society.
12. Exhibitors or their servants who do not strictly conform to all conditions and rules, or who disobey the orders of the Show yard Committee will be immediately dismissed from the premises.
13. Any act of disobedience to the orders of the Stewards or Officials of the Show by any exhibitor or exhibitors' servants will render liable to forfeiture of prizes awarded to said exhibitor and the offender will be immediately dismissed from the ground.
14. If the stewards of the Show entertain a doubt as to whether any exhibit in the show is not in accordance with the rules of Society, it will be competent of them to bring the matter before a meeting of the Committee of Management to be held at the secretary's office at 2 p.m. to consider objections, irregularities, etc, or any other matter brought before them.
15. If the Executive Committee be satisfied, after inquiry that anything exhibited be not in accordance with the rules of Society, it will be competent of them to there and then decide the question at issue and should any fraudulent practices be detected as affecting the exhibitor in question, all such exhibitor's prizes, if any, shall lapse forthwith to the society.
16. Where age is a qualification, it is the duty of the Stewards to refuse entry to the Show Ring any animal that they are satisfied is not of the right age for its class on the judgement of a Veterinary Surgeon, in case of doubt.
17. The Winner of a first prize in a class will not be eligible to compete in another class at the show, but can compete in championships and classes where it states Rule 17 does not apply.
18. Neither the Society nor any of its offices or Servants shall be in any way responsible or accountable for anything that may happen (from any cause of circumstances whatsoever) to exhibitors or their servants. Each exhibitor shall be responsible for any consequential or other loss, injury or damage to or occasioned by or arising from any animal or article exhibited by him, and for the description as given in the Catalogue and shall indemnify the Society against all legal or other proceedings thereto.
19. The Show Committee shall have full power to disqualify from exhibition any sheep which is to be considered to be coloured other than the use of ordinary non-bloom dyes free from added colouring matter.

20. The exhibit will not be allowed to carry rosette while being shown in any class.
21. The Committee reserve the right to refuse entries from any competitor.
22. All perpetual Cups to be held for one year only.
23. In domestic side, all tickets must be securely attached. Exhibits must not be removed from hall until after 4 o'clock.
24. All animals must be led by a competent adult.
25. All dogs on lead in Show field at all times.
26. Entry fees are non-refundable.
27. All entries must be paid for as entered.
28. Points awarded, 1st – 3 points, 2nd – 2 points, 3rd – 1 point.
29. All cups are Perpetual.
